

New Emergency Siren will Require Multiple Tests of System

Wednesday, 07 July 2021 10:01

The City of Sully is having a new emergency storm siren installed on Thursday, July 8 which will require testing of the siren system. This means the emergency sirens may sound off multiple times during the next few days as the equipment is being tested.